

L Notes — Volume 2

L Note 1

The first time you ignored
What you could not explain
Second time you're convinced
"There's the move where he feigns"
After the twenty-sixth
None of them will remain
18th went in the trash
31st "Down the drain"

If you want to look back
You should increase your range
Your timeline was two months
"No ER, huh, that's strange"
Got my parents involved
The whole wedding: arranged
You did bring up my past
I think it's time that changed
"Plastic. They've learned."

Hardly worth this one note
Honor to the mundane
Uninhabitable
How I left the terrain
Provide the vulgar love
I looked up, you're all slain
When they call me recluse:
"I abhor the profane"

Did you think that that would
Put me into a daze?
When your plan doesn't work:
You mere mortals: Amazed
They have scoured the town
My whole village was razed
Everyone's tried their hand
Does it look like I'm fazed?

L Note 5

Distortion overlaid
You. One word. A facade.
"That's inequitable"
One more word, it's a squad
Spared your daughters first child
Spoiled her with your rod
"Write something nice for me"
Not for a petty God

L Note 6

Encirclement? I'm cold
Shivering on the ground
Type in KinkMen you hoe
Clearly you have me bound
Use your phone, say my name
First press seven, then pound
When you're done let me know
Who'd they really surround?

L Note 7

Used to run the whole show
'Till you tested my mood
Told you I'm not the one:
Operation: Conclude
Had a degree in law
I had all lawers sued
The Judges decision:
'This page has been removed'

L Note 8

Started off with your car
They renegged what they lent
Then they came for your house
Now you live in a tent
Sale! 50% Off
The sale already went
Now you have two new holds
"Oh, that's magnificent!"

L Note 9

I'm the one who just lied
Now you're here to call bluff
Came here just to see me
Isn't that right my muff?
Try: Assert: Wont get by
I'll write one line to snuff
You're entire background
Was full of all my stuff

L Note 10

Should I submit a claim
To the pharmacy board?
If I did all you'd do
Is make it go ignored
The doctor who's on call
Ha! Assigned me a ward?
Rewind: "I hope you die"
I can also record

L Note 11

International Fame
I am globally known
Are you trending right now?
No, I am, you old crone
If I hear one complaint
If I hear one more groan
I'll talk straight to the screen
Tell you stay off my phone

L Note 12

I occupy a space
That's uncommonly wide
I'm not measuring feet
Front to back side to side
If I get in my car
You all go for a ride
There's a reason I don't
Make an effort to hide

13:

I'm the product and brand
That you knowingly sold
I'm the advertisement
I'm the research you polled
I'm the only alarm
That you never want tolled
Is there anything else
You'd like me to withhold?

L Note 14

I got a bunch of death threats
A few hours ago
Judging by their echoes
Of go six feet below
If you intend to claim my life
There's something you should know
The fact that I'm still standing
After you aired the show

Why'd you try to delay
What time I would arrive?
Didn't coordinate
Till I put it in drive
He didn't tell the truth!
He's trying to connive!
Right, with you on the screen
Don't forget that you're live

L Note 16

If you blank me again
Put me into a trance
And then give me a glance
Looking at me askance
I don't get royalties
You don't get an advance
Someone's paying for this
I'll look into finance

L Note 17

Biometric ID
Do you know what I mean?
I outperform A12
I saw me, still serene
I might listen to you
When you call me obscene
If you didn't careen
Me in between the scenes

L Note 18

You can draw on the wall
But you can't meet my gaze
God forbid that I'm rude
But look at your displays
Look me straight in the eye
Not the camera that's raised
If there's something to say
That you wish to convey

L Note 19

How'd you stay up so late?
Must've been an ordeal
But you pilfered my meds
You really shouldn't steal
There are 4 residents
Several more are concealed
Who is the likeliest
To have made you a deal?

Don't you think that it's bad
What I went there and bought
What they assume I get
But it's actually not
I'm not thinking clearly ?
It must be all the pot?
Like when you had the gun?
Threatened to have me shot?

L Note 21

Here's the thing about you
When you go on the net
And you open your mouth
Act like we've never met
If my temp is too high
But you're covered in sweat
Can you really refute
What I've said as of yet?

Perhaps it's the way that
You make use of your time
On this side of the screen
"Stay behind yellow line"
First you're cussing me out
Now you're making me signs?
The definition of Computer cybercrimes

L Note 23

I told you what it is
You don't have to agree
What you did earlier:
When you mentioned the pee
Did you think you could stare
And that I wouldn't see?
I'm not the only one
Who they have on TV

L Note 24

Do you have a reason
For the dramatic sigh?
I saw those underwear
Don't pick now to be shy
Do you realize we
Have the same alibis?
If you're trying to sneak
Don't let on you're a spy

L Note 25

This title says neighbor

dollars for chores
You're displaying the count
Tracking how many more
We made it to police
Prisoner and outdoor
All consecutive lines
Obviously ignored

L Note 26

I can hear you downstairs
Even when there's no creak
I know you stepped outside
First to call, then to speak
I don't seek these things out
I'm the person you seek
I'll remind you of that
Next time you give me cheek

L Note 27

This is copyrighted
Go look up the word writ
And when you're done with that
Go and cancel your skit
I told I you I don't act
Here's the proof, this is it

Instead of trying me
Just stay off of my shit

L Note 28

Only I set the goals
What I wish to instill
Did I watch the whole thing?
I'm not here for the thrill
Oh the look on your face
Like I meant it to spill
You know so much of me
Tell me, who pays the bills?

L Note 29

So it's okay to hack
When the target is me?
If I OD right now
Can you license off me?
Look at how much this costs
I can't go on a spree?
You cannot authorize
Making my body free

L Note 30

You were pinging nonstop
Like my locations rare
Now you're gonna act like Nathan's here? Really? Where?
Bring up Robert's drinking?
No, Nathan don't you dare
Look how you talk to me
Now tell me is that fair?

L Note 31

First you brought up caution
Then you told me abstain
As soon as I started
You started to complain
You Brought out the ladder
Looked through the windowpanes

I've reason to be mad
You? You Need to explain

L Note 32

I've been running repairs
Since I drove off the tar
Frankly i'm quite surprised
That it made it that far
The notification
You had sent from afar
Fucked up all of my shit
Do not fuck with this car

L Note 33

I'm encouraging you
To Reference the hilt
Or to publish online
How your lenses can tilt
When benito referred
To the fluid I spilt
I was overjoyed with
The admission of guilt

L Note 34

Your feelings are so strong
That you simply replied
Caution thrown to the wind
Add_to_list_of_who's_pried():
Don't take this personal
But only you provide
Me the means to extract
What cannot be denied

L Note 35

Plenty of open tabs
Let them see me just gawk
I'm staring at your screen
With the eyes of a hawk
You're the one after me
Legally i've been stalked

In the last 16 hours
How much have all you talked?

L Note 36

I will summon them all
I will bring them all in
I could whisper one word
You'd go zero to ten
If I cancel Alok
What will you all do then?
When you can't see my plans
How will you counteract them?

L Note 37

Dignity gave me my
Own specialized account
Forcing treatment on me
That is what it amounts
I will follow orders
And maintain the right count
When your labels reflect
The actual amounts

L Note 38

Tell them all my new name
That is in teletrack
Tell them who put it there
Why it's never been scrapped
Tell them what is in cures
Who all's been looking back
You were gloating before
Now you're taken aback?

L Note 39

I may rely on them
For most of what I do
What do you rely on?
No, I meant to say who
If I cannot sustain
What I must when I choose

What will happen on here?
With the programs you use?

L Note 40

If I left as you wish
You would probably sing
Until you realized
I leave with what I bring
When I lose so do you
None of us get a thing
You pick out the wrong string
The whole pattern un-clings

L Note 41

I can point to the signs
I didn't need your clue
Half the streets colored orange
Your sentry just drove through
There are very few ways
That i could misconstrue
Seeing myself on screen
As Portrayed from your view

L Note 42

I'm the reason you're here
Why you summoned the fleet
I'm why you are outside
The corner of my street
They called you here for me
Why you meet once a week
When they call you to court
You'll wish you pressed delete

L Note 43

No, it wasn't a joke
Not to me, not that roast
I know you meant to spread
This from the coast to coast
Oh, I'm going too far?
You are doing the most

I will give you some time
To remove your last posts

L Note 44

Here's the thing, you can blab
You can do what you do
But you just have to think
What I'll do back to you
You're free to do a lot
But, let's not get confused
There's so much I could do
Without having you sued

L Note 45

I don't need to look there
I don't need to search here
Not when you showed me home
Why would I need to peer?
I don't listen to you
I'm the one with your ear
When I'm wearing headphones
Vibrations say you're near

L Note 46

Now I'm listening, go on
Tell me more of this craze
That you weren't present for Comment Section: Betrays
Should I pull up your text?
Video overlays?
What would you do to me?
Oh, now your silence pays

L Note 47

Let me re-remind you
You're technology's strong
If this were a fair fight
You wouldn't last that long
Programs usher you in
Now you're part of the throng

Why on earth would you think
You actually belong?

L Note 48

Any child could construct
Your pathetic design
Any swindler or crook
Or the likes of you swine
I'm not up for dispute
I'll give you one word: Mine
Do you want a new phone?
It's your cell, you're confined

L Note 49

Behavioral model
Have you learned from these acts?
You'll get the right results
If: Precision == "Exact"
Maybe don't spend your time
Getting me to react
To the clutter imposed
As a means to distract

L Note 50

The interlocutor
Delineation ceased
Slice the boobs off this duck
Cut the gabble of geese
At your hearing they said
That this person is reest
When they told you you won:
Nurturer: "You're released"

For a phone that's phonic

L Note 52

Wanted acrimony
Wanted evil, you're vile
When I gave the salut
Did you expect a heil?
Auto toting your pros
Reinstating your guile
They laugh after I toot
Put that in your thought tile

L Note 53

It's not anarchy to

You may get by with Singh
He allowed you to skate
And they may acquiesce
When they're asked to stay late

Whom I'll serve on a plate

Try to come after me
My advice: Don't tempt fate

L Note 56

Admissions: I'm enrolled
Here to earn a degree
We're at work and you're pressed
'Cause I used the word ye
I am new but you're schooled

What are you here to teach?
Me about loyalty?

L Note 57

'Till you're holding out hands
And they've nothing to spare
Till you enter your house
All the cabinets: bare

If you send up a prayer
Till the end of all worlds
Desperation Despair

Who do you work for? DART?
Is this going somewhere?
Put it simply? My heart

L Note 59

I'll give my little girl
And I'll give you my son
I'll give all that I hold
Though to you it's worth none
I'll sell you seven souls
In exchange for that one

“Can I have your abode?”
Thought about it, said “Done.”

L Note 60

I know it's not your fault
And that pollens the term
Probably doesn't help
If you add in the germs
Doesn't come from a worm
That's insistently firm
It's just funny that you're
Allergic to plant sperm

L Note 61

Paralytic unbind
Pull your yarn you un-knit
Here's a thought, make a slit
I'm afraid this won't fit

Must we do this again?
Rita: "How many times?"

These are responding rows

L Note 87

Who are you referencing
When you're using a quote?
Why just six syllables?
Why the tickety tote?
Are the things in here true?
Or is this just to gloat?
Why has no one asked me
Where'd I get what I wrote?

L Note 88

Yeah, we got in a scrape
I came out with a scratch
Both walked into a trap
You fell into the hatch
"I got it covered bro"
You're not even a patch
We might meet in the ring
I'm not easy to match

L Note 89

He might misspell the plow

Is it O-Fi-Ci-Al?

Oh the candle is close
Light the tip of the wick
Facebook gave you a poke
Proffering fingers pricked
Lickitung bent down low
Laid in lovingly licked
That is so beyond gross
